

Sydney Summer Organ Academy

supported by

The Royal College of Organists

Shore School, North Sydney

Wednesday 29th December 2010 to Sunday 2nd January 2011

The course caters for all levels and abilities, from beginner to advanced with expert tutors James Parsons (Student Development Officer at the Royal College of Organists, UK), Oliver Brett (UK), Philip Swanton (Head of Organ Studies Sydney Conservatorium), Peter Kneeshaw (Organist of St Mary's Cathedral) and Robert Ampt (Sydney City Organist).

Our aim is to give opportunities of playing and learning in a friendly environment under guidance from the tutors on different instruments in the Sydney region.

A wonderful way to spend a few days after Christmas doing something with others who share your passion!
